*Irrevocable bequest intentions (also known as “life pledges”)

In accordance with Association of Fundraising Professional standards, Saint Francis Service Dogs may recognize and count irrevocable pledges where donors have included Saint Francis Service Dogs in their estate plans, provided that such donors (1) are age 70 or older at the time of the gift, (2) sign a written pledge agreement that makes their commitment legally binding and irrevocable, and (3) own sufficient assets to satisfy the amount committed, as best as Saint Francis Service Dogs can ascertain. These gifts will be entered into gift accounting records as a pledge. Although Saint Francis Service Dogs may provide an acknowledgment of the pledge for recognition purposes, per IRS regulations Saint Francis Service Dogs cannot provide any gift receipt to such donors until the pledge is satisfied.

**Revocable bequest intentions

Saint Francis Service Dogs welcomes notification by donors that they have included Saint Francis Service Dogs in their wills or estate plans, records this information in the Development database, and honors their generous intentions with an invitation to membership in the Legacy Society. However, Saint Francis Service Dogs does not book or count revocable future gifts or bequests, and per IRS regulations, Saint Francis Service Dogs cannot provide any gift receipt to donors until the gifts are realized.
